Susan Padrino, MD has been practicing medicine at the intersection of physical and mental health for the past 15 years. She is a Board-Certified physician in both Internal Medicine and Psychiatry who is passionate about providing medical care based on a deep understanding of the whole patient.

Since graduating from a combined Internal Medicine-Psychiatry residency in 2004 from Duke University Medical Center, Dr. Padrino has been working at University Hospitals Cleveland Medical Center and Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine in Cleveland OH. She helped build Cartesian Solutions, LLC in 2019 to expand patient access to better models of health care, in the belief that attention to both the mind and the body will result in healthier patients, families, communities, and populations. She is a strong proponent of equitable access to care and wellness.
